A homage to the Greek village of Kommemo where, in 1943, soldiers of the German Wehrmacht massacred the civilian population. Songs for Kommemo has been strongly marked by the music of Greece, by the string instruments yayli tanbur, oud and double bass played by Evgenios Voulgaris and Spilios Kastanis, by the clarinet played by Floros Floridis, by the unmistakable voice of Savina Yannatou, as well as by the percussionist and composer Günter Baby Sommer from Dresden. Der CD of the project is entitled Songs For Kommemo (INTAKT).
